

Big Todd's Animal Adventure!

BARNARD'S

Changing childhoods.
Changing lives.

I'm Big Todd and I'm trying to find animals of every size and kind.

If you love animals then come with me...

we'll travel the Earth through jungle and sea.

On the top of the world in the North Pole,
where Santa's reindeer like to stroll,
lives an animal with white hair...

Can you see the polar bear?

Now in Asia, it's so hot,

see which animal you can spot.

It's got a long trunk and great big ears –

in the jungle the elephant appears.

Down to Australia so far from home,
where lots of interesting animals roam.

I see a hopping animal, can you?

Say g'day to the kangaroo!

On to Africa, we search for a cat,

but this is a kitty you won't want to pat.

Look at the picture and you will see a lion looking straight at me!

Now back home, all travelling done,

we dress as animals, oh what fun!

With painted faces and costumes galore,

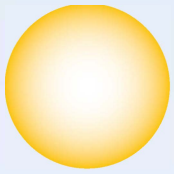

we can remember the creatures we saw.

All dressed up, it's time for the Toddle.

It's so much fun, this fundraising's a doddle!

We've had a great day with Barnardo's as host,
and we helped children who need it most.

Todd travels the world in search of animals in their natural habitat. Read it to, or with, the children to get them excited about their Big Toddle.

The story is a great way to start telling children how they will be helping others at Barnardo's.
